Mumbai, October 10, 2019: Vodafone Idea, country's leading telecommunications service provider today announced its partnership with Revolt Intellicorp, the next-gen mobility company, created for the smart world. The collaboration between the two companies aims to give a 'smart' riding experience for India's first AI-enabled electric motorbike.

As a part of the partnership, Vodafone Idea Business Services (VIBS), the enterprise arm of Vodafone Idea, provides Revolt Intellicorp with 4G IoT connectivity solutions. Building on the existing features of the new and fully equipped motorcycle – like app connectivity and four separate artificial exhaust sounds, VIBS is now providing exclusive IoT enabled solutions to enable features such as geofencing, bike locator and real-time bike information and diagnostics, with voice start feature to be introduced soon for the customers.

Speaking on partnership, Nick Gliddon, Chief Enterprise Business Officer, Vodafone Idea said, "We are extremely happy to announce this partnership with Revolt Motors and make India's first AI based electric motorbike truly smart through our IoT solutions. Electric Vehicles will disrupt the Indian automobile landscape in the coming few years. Connectivity will play a pivotal role in ensuring that electric vehicles are a success. It offers us an ideal opportunity to collaborate and introduce comprehensive end-to-end solutions for our partners in the automotive industry and enhance customer experience."

KEY FEATURES

- 360 degree view of bike's performance
- Real time location tracking
- Geo fencing
- Voice Start feature
(coming soon)

Commenting on the collaboration, Rahul Sharma, Founder, Revolt Intellicorp said, "We are happy to partner with Vodafone Idea, as we progress to make urban commute convenient, clean and connected. This collaboration is an important milestone in our journey to offer smart mobility solutions and an enhanced riding experience to our customers. We are committed to the sustainable mobility mission and will continue to work towards bringing aspirational e-mobility solutions for the customers."

The fully electric motorbikes-RV400 and RV300 can be purchased through the My Revolt Plan. This partnership will herald a new chapter in the Indian automotive industry and more particularly shape the Electric Vehicle revolution.
